

NATIVE RIGHTS AND THE STRUGGLE AGAINST THE TAR SANDS

Thursday, April 10, 2014 at 7 pm

Silver Maple Room, Davis Center, UVM

BEFORE

The Canadian Tar Sands Project threatens the land and lives of communities across the continent. It has also inspired a campaign that unites movements for indigenous rights, the environment, and economic justice. This campaign has the potential to protect the people and the environment and resist big oil and corporate power.

AFTER

Clayton Thomas-Muller

Member of the Mathias Colomb Cree Nation of Northern Manitoba

*Co-director of the Indigenous Tar Sands Campaign
Organizer for Defenders of the Land and Idle No More*

Will Miller Social Justice Lecture Series

He will always be remembered as a clear voice in a world of false words and disinformation.

Sponsored by: United Academics: AFT-AAUP

Endorsed by: UVM's ALANA Program, English Department, Environmental Program,, Climate Culture and the International Socialist Organization; Global Justice Ecology Project and the Will Miller Green Mountain Veterans for Peace Chapter, St. Michael's College Environmental Studies Program and Political Science Department